

Mt. Hood

Sponsors:

MT. HOOD
MEADOWS
SKI RESORT

Heritage Day

in Government Camp, Oregon

Sept. 23, 2006
Activities begin at 10:00 AM

Produced by
Mt. Hood Cultural Center and Museum

A full day of activities for the entire family.

Mt. Hood Museum Open House

No charge, special and permanent exhibits relating to Mt. Hood History. Special interpreters from the Cascade National Volcano Center and Mt. Hood National Forest will staff special exhibits. Learn with Mt. Hood volcano will erupt, or how to locate a forest fire, or take a nature hike lead by professional from these agencies.

Mt. Hood Heritage Booths: Meet club members of various outdoor recreation clubs. Learn the clubs history, membership activities and benefits of belonging to a hiking, skiing or climbing club.

Arts Cabins

tour the Arts Cabins, see craftsman and artist demonstrations, learn about this new, exciting Arts and Crafts School, a program of the Mt. Hood Cultural Center and Museum.

Heritage Buffet:

Baron of Beef, Salmon and special side dishes, plus divine desert selections: Pre-purchase tickets required. $20.00 each. First setting at 6:30 PM

See the new Government Camp.

Tour or learn about new condo and townhouse offerings in the village.

Off to Mt Hood Cruise-in.

Open to all collectible cars and vehicles. Prizes, Awards for Peoples Choice and Best Prepared Mountain Car. Hill Climb, rare opportunity to drive West-leg Road, the original road to Timberline Lodge, include in the $10 entry fee.

Barlow Road Living History Encampment.

Visit an authentic pioneer encampment. Learn how the Oregon Trail emigrants dressed, traveled, cooked and survived their 2000 mile journey to Oregon in 1850.

Silent Auction and Raffle:

Bid on a variety of items including antiques, wine, food baskets, cabin decorative items, photographs, recreation equipment, travel packages and more. Raffle tickets for 2007 model Rossignol skis, $5.00 per ticket.

Associated Event: Family Fun and Feast:

A picnic with an altitude. A full day of adventure activities at MOUNT HOOD ADVENTURE PARK at Ski Bowl. A $20.00 ticket, purchased in advance, includes most of the activities and lunch. A special Mt. Hood Chamber of Commerce fund raiser. Tickets available at the Mt. HOOD MUSEUM and other Mt. Hood businesses.